HomesAndLand.com already generates more than 18 million page views per month. We have embarked on a major campaign to generate even more traffic to our site.

HomesAndLand.com will be promoted on search engines, billboards, radio stations, nationally distributed newspapers — as well as on HGTV, where serious homebuyers and sellers go for real estate information.

In 2005 more people than ever will make
HomesAndLand.com the first stop in their home search.
